

*Staple and attach to the back of your report.

Name _____

Date _____

-1 point will be deducted per grammar, spelling, and punctuation error.

-5 points will be deducted if the rubric is not attached to your report.

-5 points will be deducted for each missing citation.

The content of your report will be graded according to the rubric below:

Basic Facts 1. Who: All key figures, including the victim(s), criminal(s), investigator(s), or any others who influenced the outcome have been identified within the report. Names and their role in the case has been identified. 2. What: Nature of the crime has been identified 3. Where: Key location(s) of the crime, such as where the crime occurred, where the evidence was found or hidden, and where the trial took place (if there was a trial) has been identified. 4. When: The time period of the crime has been identified completely.	1	2	3	4	5
MMO 1. The student fully described the reasons why the criminal(s) committed the crime (motive). 2. The student fully described how the crime was committed (method). 3. The student fully described who was nearby when the crime was committed and how the opportunity to commit the crime was left open (opportunity).	1	2	3	4	5
Detective Fiction Elements 1. Student identified/created at least two detective-fiction elements that could be part of a story. A description of how the elements are shown in the true case is included. 2. The citations (paraphrase or quotation) included directly connect and support the student's statements. 3. Correct citation information is included. 4. Response is at least two paragraphs in length.	1	2	3	4	5