Values Important to the Ancient Greeks

Courage: heroism and fearlessness demonstrated in battle was prized above most other values

Honor: demonstrated in wars and battle fighting or defending the state and beliefs

Loyalty: must remain loyal to parents, family, country and gods

Sacrifice to Gods: prove and demonstrate devotion, indebtedness to those who protect and provide

Courtesy: be kind and hospitable to all guests and strangers to the home because one might be a god or goddess in disguise

Succession to the Throne: a rightful inheritance to the throne and there should be no fighting as to who is the rightful heir to the property

Bond between Men: friendship and loyalty between men is stronger than the bond between man and wife
