Annandale, NJ – June 2, 2011 - North Hunterdon High School is proud to announce Head Baseball Coach Parker Snare's 500th win. The team came back from an 8-1 deficit to defeat Montgomery High School 11-9. Mr. Snare has been a dedicated head baseball coach for 32 years and averaged 15.6 wins a season over his career.

"I am proud of Coach Snare's perseverance in achieving this momentous goal in his career. Mr. Snare has spent many untold hours during his coaching tenure with our student athletes and providing a positive experience for all of them. Coach Snare has had a great group of kids in the Hunterdon Community every year. Coach Snare falls under a small elite group of NJ coaches to obtain 500 wins and this is truly a historic day in North history." said John Deutsch, Director of Athletics of North Hunterdon High School.
