

Sports News Announcement

New Jersey GRANT SIBLE Selected for 2017 POWER SHOWCASE World Classic

For Immediate Release: September 15, 2017

The 12th Annual World POWER SHOWCASE is being held in Miami at Marlins Park on December 27th to the 30th (2017). The event features the most prolific amateur players from around the world and provides the perfect center-stage opportunity in which to demonstrate their skill-sets in a major league stadium.

The POWER SHOWCASE has announced that Center Fielder, Grant Sible, Clinton, NJ, (North Hunterdon High School) has been named to the 12th Annual POWER SHOWCASE All-American Team. Each player is personally selected by the POWER SHOWCASE based on their abilities, power, scout references, high school and showcase tournament performances. Grant will proudly represent New Jersey during the prestigious Home Run Derby that will feature top amateur power hitting prospects from around the world and during the All-American Classic Game. The game highlights the five-day, All-encompassing educational experience staffed by some of the very best coaches, including a MLB Scout Day in front of all thirty organizations, a welcome dinner/ jersey presentation ceremony, the home run derby itself, two mental strength sessions and involvement in the POWER SHOWCASE's philanthropic arm, called the "Home Runs that Help".

Grant plays for the Lions coached by Mike Kane, Flemington Post 159 Tribe coached by Steve Farsiou and the New Jersey Jays coached by Shawn Reindel.

To learn more about the POWER SHOWCASE or dates and the official selection process, visit www.powershowcase.com