

Renaissance Report Individual: _____ Name: _____

Who: Name of your individual. Who were the individual's parents. Who was the individual married to if applicable. Who were the individual's children if applicable.

When: When was the individual born. When did this individual make his contribution to the Renaissance. When did this individual die.

Where: Where was the individual born. Where did the majority of the individual's contributions to the Renaissance take place. Where did this individual die.

What: What was the individual's contribution to the Renaissance. Identify their works.

Why: Why was the individual's contributions significant to the Renaissance?

Picture: Provide a picture of the individual and his contribution to the Renaissance.

The paper is to consist of two paragraphs. Each paragraph is to have a minimum of 5 sentences. The first paragraph is to consist of the who, when, and where. The second paragraph is to consist of the what, why, and picture. The paper is not to exceed more than one page. Proper grammar is expected and points will be taken off for spelling, punctuation, and grammar. You will only be penalized up to a maximum of 10 points for spelling, punctuation, and grammar with each infraction costing you a point. Documentation of your sources is required. If documentation is not shown, than you will automatically fail. You will be giving a brief presentation to the class concerning your individual. This sheet of paper must be attached to your paper.

Due on:

Who: Parents

Marriage

Children

When: Born

Contribution Dates

Died

Where: Born

Contribution Site

Died

What: Contribution Specification

Identification of Work

Why: Contribution Significance

Picture: Individual

Contribution

Grammar:

Two Paragraphs: 5 sentences

5 Sentences

Documentation: