Autism Champions directly impact the lives of those with autism. There are so many great activities for you, your class, your company, or your organization. Raise awareness, raise money for services, help children with autism and have fun doing it! Put your talents to use, it's easy and fun and POAC is here to help.

Every Autism Champion receives a certificate of appreciation and is recognized in our publications. If you know, love, or teach someone with autism, chances are you have already been touched by POAC. Now it's your turn, join us!
