

Outdoor Pursuits Club

Advisor: Tony Makoski

The Outdoor Pursuits Club provides students who enjoy being active outdoors an opportunity to learn basic outdoor skills while also working on social skills. No experience or equipment is necessary. Activities may include learning about knot tying, outdoor kills, trail conservation, backpacking and camping, as well as walks on Columbia Trail and using the elements course near baseball field.

Meetings will be twice a month in fall and spring and once a month during winter months.