

Raritan Headwaters Student Citizen Science Volunteer Certificate Program

High School Students

- Real life science techniques, water monitoring protocols, macroinvertebrate identification-
- Collect and record data to be used by RHA Science Research Program-

UNDERSTAND THE THREATS TO OUR STREAMS AND WHAT WE DO TO PROTECT CLEAN WATER

- Sessions include Stream, Pond and Wetland assessments with experienced staff-

Orientation: Wednesday, June 26

Session Dates: July 10, July 17, July 24, July 31, August 7, August 14

Time: 9:30a.m.-12:30p.m.

Submit a volunteer application: www.raritanheadwaters.org/getinvolved

More info: email Trish, Volunteer Manager tmcguire@raritanheadwaters.org

Certificate Program Fee: $30 Includes RHA T-shirt!

Please feel free to bring a lunch and enjoy the property after the session

All sessions will be held at our Fairview Farm location
2121 Larger Cross Road, Gladstone

Learn-Volunteer-Contribute