

NHEF College Bound: Summer College Admissions Workshops

Summer Workshops, Coaching and Tools to Successfully Navigate the College Admissions Process

The NHEF, in partnership with NHHS English and Guidance departments, present

NHEF College Bound Summer Workshops

Workshops will be offered in person when possible. If COVID-19 guidelines prevent in person meetings during the scheduled workshops, all workshops are able to be delivered virtually. NOTE: All workshops in June will be virtual due to construction in the HS.

Navigating the College Process:

A Road Map (7:00 - 8:30 pm)
(Parents and Students)

- ◆ Tuesday, June 22 (virtual) or
- ◆ Tuesday, August 17

Guidance Counselor, David Raupp, will provide parents and students with a road map of what you should be doing and when for the college application process.

SCOIR Workshop: Demonstration and Hands-on Learning
(7:00 - 8:30 pm)

(Parents and Students)

- ◆ Thursday, June 24 (Virtual) or
- ◆ Thursday, August 19

In this hands-on workshop, Guidance Counselor, David Raupp, will show you how to navigate the college search and career tools in SCOIR, the new college exploration and search tool that the Guidance department has switched to this year.

Application 101: Get your College Application Done: Navigating both the Common and Coalition Applications

(4:00 - 6:00 pm)

(Students Only – rising Seniors)

- ◆ Tuesday, June 22 (virtual)
- ◆ Thursday, June 24 (virtual)
- ◆ Tuesday, August 10
- ◆ Thursday, August 12
- ◆ Tuesday, August 17
- ◆ Thursday, August 19

A hands-on workshop that will guide students through filling out the Common Application or Coalition Application. Must have a computer with you and an account set up in the Common or Coalition Applications. Probably only one session needed but students are welcome to come to more than one.

Admissions Case Studies: Become part of an admissions committee for the night

(7:00 - 8:30 pm)

(Parents and Students)

- ◆ Wednesday, June 23 (virtual) or
- ◆ Wednesday, August 18

Using case studies, you will become an admissions committee for the night. This will show you what Admissions Offices look for from applicants, as well as the types of institutional requests and needs that might influence their decisions.

Registration: Sign-up Now!

To register for all or some of the workshops please go to:

<https://forms.gle/7yyAoVGsrwSkhTLJ7>

All workshops are Free except for the Essay and College Coaching which have a fee. Payment for these can be made at the NHEF website at www.nhhsfoundation.org/college-bound-workshops/ and pay through the Buy Now button.

NOTE: Essay workshops and college coaching are partially subsidized by the NHEF.

NHEF College Bound: Essay Writing Workshops

(Classes will be capped at 12 students each- Sign up early to reserve your spot. Min. of 10 students needed to run workshop)

June 21 – 25 (Virtual)

July 12-16

July 19-23

9:00-11:30 am or

5:00-7:30 pm (virtual)

* Note: Virtual opportunities are only available during 5-7:30 PM sessions. Teachers will not be making the morning sessions virtual.

North Hunterdon HS English teachers, Ms. Carr, Ms. Cavo and Ms. Fedorko, will provide students with the opportunity to start and develop a working draft of their college application essay. Students can register for one of six sessions (June or July) which are 2.5 hours each day for the week. We are offering virtual and in person workshops
Fee is $150.00 per student.

College Bound Individual College Coaching

◆ Ongoing throughout July and August
Sign up for a one hour long individual coaching session with an experienced college coach. A coach will provide personalized counsel, strategies and planning to effectively navigate the college admissions process. The coaching will consist of three components:

1. Introductory emails/call to identify and align areas of focus;
2. A one hour in-person meeting;
3. A written summary at the completion of the engagement.

Fee is $50.00 for a 1 hour session