Faculty Report:

Mr. Vince Angeline reported

- Mr. Angeline expressed his gratitude to NHMA parents for Columbus Day parade help . The TV coverage this year was great, Joe Piscopo gave us several minutes of air time.
- Day at Developmental Center went well.
- Upcoming: band banquet and receptions after winter concerts.

Miss Meo asked if there could be funding for an alumna actress to come and speak to theater/acting students.

Treasurer's Report: Joe Maggio—no bills, just banquet ("lull" period), plus insurance – all paid. We are in better shape this year than last year at this time.

Corresponding Secretary's Report: Sharon Witkowski reported that we sent out 1 sympathy card and wrote 3 thank yous for donations.

Membership – We are now at 119 members (it was 124 last year at this time)

Band Events

50/50 -- $524 made at football game

Should do after musical too

Columbus Day Parade 2011 – went well

Bake Sale – Mary Genco, thanks to her and band members and parents, did really well!

P'burg Band Festival November 2nd – Marching Band got Three superior ratings!

Homecoming Dance – Kim Murphy said they did well with coat check, $244 made.

Suggestion was made for a blurb to be put in homecoming letter next year (Mr. Hughes)

New Business

Marching Band Banquet – November 30, 2011 – Kathy Powers and Connie Galluza

Invitations going out via email, final count needed 2 days before, with a buffer of 10 people

Christmas Parade (+pizza party) – December 2, 2011

Need truck for loading

Winter Concerts – Nancy Gaidos – December 8, 15

Receptions afterward

New Fundraiser

Dorita Paulikowski—donating profits from Herbalife sales

Herbalife, too expensive to print flyers/envelopes. (website –to place order, plus cover letters)

Could have samples and flyers by November 30th for table at Band Banquet—Approved.
