

Environmental Club

Advisors: Melanie Kerr

Contact information: mkerr@nhvweb.net ext 2069

Environmental Club's focus is improving the environment and resource use at Voorhees High School. This student-run, student-driven organization implemented a full school recycling program. Meetings are generally held on Wednesdays after school.

Other projects have been water bottle sales and a large display in the Hunterdon County Library. The club has also traveled to Camden to help construct raised garden beds. Future goals include putting in more water bottle fountains, refurbishing the greenhouse, composting and community outreach.